

Instructions for Application for Nonimmigrant Worker: H-2A Classification

Department of Homeland Security
U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services

USCIS
Form I-129H2A
OMB No. 1615-xxxx
Expires xx/xx/20xx

Purpose of Form I-129H2A

This form is used by an employer or agent to petition U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) for a noncitizen beneficiary to come temporarily to the United States as a nonimmigrant to perform agricultural services or labor.

Form I-129H2A consists of the:

1. Basic petition;
2. H-2A Named Worker Attachment (required when more than one named beneficiary is included in the petition); and
3. Joint Employer Supplement.

Who May File Form I-129H2A?

General. A U.S. employer or the employer's agent may file this form and applicable supplements to classify a noncitizen as a temporary agricultural worker in the H-2A nonimmigrant classification. An association of U.S. agricultural producers may also file this form when named as a joint employer on the temporary labor certification.

Agents. A U.S. individual or company in business as an agent may file a petition for:

1. Workers who are traditionally self-employed;
2. Workers who use agents to arrange short-term employment on their behalf with numerous employers; or
3. A foreign employer who authorizes the agent to act on its behalf.

A petition filed by an agent must include a complete itinerary of services or engagements, including dates, names, and addresses of the actual employers, and the locations where the beneficiary will perform the services. A petition filed by a U.S. agent must guarantee the wages and other terms and conditions of employment by contractual agreement with the beneficiary or beneficiaries of the petition. The agent/employer must also provide an itinerary of definite employment and information on any other services planned for the period of time requested.

General Instructions

USCIS provides forms free of charge through the USCIS website. In order to view, print, or fill out our forms, you should use the latest version of Adobe Reader, which you can download for free at <http://get.adobe.com/reader/>. If you do not have internet access, you may order USCIS forms by calling the USCIS Contact Center at 1-800-375-5283. The USCIS Contact Center provides information in English and Spanish. For TTY (deaf or hard of hearing) call: 1-800-767-1833.

Signature. Each petition must be properly signed and filed. For all signatures on this petition, USCIS will not accept a stamped or typewritten name in place of a signature. A legal guardian may also sign for a mentally incompetent person. If the request is not signed or if the requisite signature on the request is not valid, USCIS will reject the request. See 8 CFR section 103.2(a)(7)(ii)(A). If USCIS accepts a request for adjudication and determines that it has a deficient signature, USCIS will deny the request.

Validity of Signatures. USCIS will consider a photocopied, faxed, or scanned copy of the original, handwritten signature valid for filing purposes. The photocopy, fax, or scan must be of the original document containing the handwritten, ink signature.

Filing Fee. Each petition must be accompanied by the appropriate filing fee. (See the What Is the Filing Fee section of these Instructions.)

Evidence. At the time of filing, you must submit all evidence and supporting documents listed in the Specific Instructions section of these Instructions. USCIS may reject or deny your petition for failure to submit evidence or supporting documents in accordance with 8 CFR 103.2(b)(1).

Biometrics Services Appointment for Certain Beneficiaries. After receiving your petition and ensuring completeness, USCIS may inform you in writing if the beneficiary or beneficiaries must submit biometrics. Failure of a beneficiary to appear at a biometrics appointment may result in denial of your petition.

Copies. You should submit legible photocopies of documents requested, unless the Instructions specifically state that you must submit an original document. USCIS may request an original document at the time of filing or at any time during processing of a petition. If USCIS requests an original document from you, it will be returned to you after USCIS determines it no longer needs your original.

NOTE: If you submit original documents when not required or requested by USCIS, your original documents may be immediately destroyed after we receive them.

Translations. If you submit a document with information in a foreign language, you must also submit a full English translation. The translator must sign a certification that the English language translation is complete and accurate, and that they are competent to translate from the foreign language into English. Information About Form I-129H2A

The H-2A classification always requires a petition.

The evidence listed below for H-2A petitions and for those petitions seeking a change of status or extension of stay, as applicable, must be included.

Including more than one beneficiary in a petition. You may include multiple beneficiaries who seek admission in the H-2A classification on the same petition provided you are requesting the same action for each beneficiary and all beneficiaries will:

1. Be employed for the same period of time;
2. Be employed in the same location(s); and
3. Perform the same services or labor.

Total number of workers. The total number of workers you request on an H-2A petition must not exceed the number of workers approved by the Department of Labor on the temporary labor certification.

Naming beneficiaries. Generally, you may request named or unnamed workers as beneficiaries of an H-2A petition. You may also request some named and some unnamed workers, as long as you are requesting the same action for each worker.

H-2A workers who must be named: You must provide the name, date of birth, country of birth, and country of nationality of all H-2A workers who:

1. Are currently in the United States; or
2. Are nationals of countries that are not designated by the Secretary of Homeland Security as eligible to participate in the H-2A program (see link and "Eligible Countries List" information below).

NOTE: You must submit an H-2A Named Worker Attachment for each additional beneficiary when more than one named beneficiary is included in the petition.

H-2A Nonimmigrants

The H-2A classification is for noncitizens coming to the United States temporarily to perform agricultural labor or services of a temporary or seasonal nature. The maximum period of stay that may be granted under this petition is the period specified in the temporary labor certification the petitioner is submitting together with this petition. The maximum overall period of stay for H-2A workers is, generally, three years, after which such workers must depart from the United States and remain outside the country for a period of no less than three months before such workers again become eligible for H-2A classification.

The petition may be filed by:

1. The employer listed on the temporary labor certification;
2. The employer's agent; or
3. Joint employers, including an association of U.S. agricultural producers named as a joint employer on the temporary labor certification.

The petitioner, employer (if different from the petitioner), and each joint employer must complete and sign the relevant sections of the petition and relevant attachments/supplements. For joint employers, the primary petitioner is the primary applicant named on the temporary labor certification.

Additionally, the petitioner must submit:

1. A single valid temporary labor certification from the U.S. Department of Labor;
2. Evidence showing that each named beneficiary meets the minimum job requirements stated in the temporary labor certification at the time the certification application was filed; and
3. When applicable, a petition for noncitizens to perform services or labor in more than one location must include an itinerary with the dates and locations where the services or labor will take place.

NOTE: Under certain emergent circumstances, as determined by USCIS, petitions requesting a continuation of employment with the same employer for 2 weeks or less are exempt from the temporary labor certification requirement. Such petitioners should submit a detailed explanation of the emergent circumstances and a photocopy of the previously submitted temporary labor certification. See 8 CFR 214.2(h)(5)(x).

E-Verify and H-2A Petitions

In certain cases, H-2A workers may start work for a new employer beginning on the date USCIS receives a Form I-129H2A extension of stay request filed on their behalf. The H-2A workers may work for a period of up to 120 days while the H-2A extension of stay request is pending with USCIS. This may happen only if:

1. The petitioner/employer is a participant in good standing in the E-Verify program; and
2. The requested workers are:

A. Seeking to extend their H-2A status; and

B. In lawful H-2A status at the time the new employer files the H-2A petition seeking to extend the workers' H-2A status.

If the petitioner/employer and the requested H-2A workers meet these criteria, provide the E-Verify Company ID or Client Company ID in Part 1. Petitioner Information, Item Numbers 15. - 17. of Form I-129H2A and in Item Numbers 14. - 16. of any Joint Employer Supplement for Form I-129H2A. See 8 CFR 274a.12(b)(21) for more information.

Eligible Countries List

H-2A petitions may generally only be approved for nationals of countries that the Secretary of Homeland Security has designated, with the concurrence of the Secretary of State, as eligible to participate in the H-2A program. The current list of eligible countries is located at www.uscis.gov/h-2a.

You may request workers who are nationals of countries that have not been designated as eligible to participate in the H-2A program. To do so, you must:

1. Name each beneficiary who is not from an eligible country; and
2. Provide evidence to show that it is in the U.S. interest for the noncitizen to be the beneficiary of such a petition.

USCIS's determination of what constitutes the U.S. interest takes into account certain factors, including but not limited to:

1. Evidence demonstrating that a worker with the required skills is not available among U.S. workers or among foreign workers from a country currently on the eligible countries list;
2. Evidence that the beneficiary has been admitted to the United States previously in H-2A status;
3. The potential for abuse, fraud, or other harm to the integrity of the H-2A visa program through the potential admission of a beneficiary from a country not currently on the eligible countries list; and
4. Such other factors as may serve the U.S. interest.

NOTE: It is recommended that H-2A petitions for workers from countries not listed on the "Eligible Countries List" be filed separately.

Prohibited Fees

As a condition of approval of an H-2A petition, no job placement fee or other compensation (either direct or indirect) may be collected at any time from a beneficiary of an H-2A petition. This includes collection by a petitioner, agent, facilitator, recruiter, or similar employment service, as a condition of employment, whether before or after the filing or approval of a petition. The only exceptions to this are:

1. The lower of the actual cost or fair market value of transportation to the offered employment; and
2. Any government-mandated passport, visa, or inspection fees.

However, even the payment of these fees by a worker may be otherwise prohibited under law.

If USCIS determines any of the following have occurred, the petition will be denied or revoked:

1. You collected, or entered into an agreement to collect, prohibited fees as described above;
2. You knew, or should have known, at the time of filing the petition that the beneficiary paid, or agreed to pay, any agent, facilitator, recruiter, or similar employment service as a condition of employment;
3. The beneficiary paid you prohibited fees or compensation as a condition of employment after the petition was filed; or
4. You knew, or had reason to know, that the beneficiary paid, or agreed to pay, the agent, facilitator, recruiter, or similar employment service prohibited fees after the petition was filed.

In these instances, the only exceptions to a mandatory denial or revocation are found at 8 CFR 214.2(h)(5)(xi)(A)(4).

Submit any evidence requested in Part 6 with your petition. Additional evidence may be requested indicating that, to the best of the petitioner's knowledge, the beneficiaries have not paid, and will not pay, prohibited fees or other prohibited forms of compensation.

Interrupted Stays

Interrupted stays are certain periods of time that a worker spends outside the United States during an authorized period of stay in H-2A status. An interrupted stay does not count toward the worker's maximum 3-year limit in the classification.

An H-2A worker may qualify for an interrupted stay under the following conditions:

If the worker was in the United States in H-2 status for an aggregate period of:	Then H-2 time is interrupted if they are outside the United States for:
18 months or less	At least 45 days, but less than 3 months
More than 18 months, but less than 3 years	At least 2 months

Time in H-2A status is not automatically interrupted if the worker departs the United States. It is considered interrupted only if the guidelines in the above chart are met. For more on interrupted stays, see www.uscis.gov/h-2a.

Notification Requirements

By filing an H-2A petition, you agree to notify the Department of Homeland Security within 2 workdays if an H-2A worker:

1. Fails to report to work within 5 workdays after the employment start date stated on the petition or within five workdays after the start date as established by the H-2A employer, whichever is later;
2. Completes the labor or services more than 30 days earlier than the employment end date stated on the petition;
3. Absconds from the worksite by not reporting for work for a period of 5 consecutive workdays without the consent of the employer; or
4. Is terminated prior to the completion of the services or labor.

The petitioner also agrees to retain evidence of such notification and make it available for inspection by DHS officers for a one-year period beginning on the date of the notification.

Failure to comply with this agreement may result in penalties. See www.uscis.gov/h-2a for more information.

Filing Multiple Petitions

You generally may file one petition to request all of your H-2A workers associated with one temporary labor certification. In cases where filing a separate petition is not required, it may still be advantageous to file more than one H-2A petition. This can occur when you petition for multiple workers, some of whom may not qualify for part or all of the validity period you request. This most frequently occurs when:

1. Some of the workers you request are nationals of a country not on the eligible countries list;
2. You request interrupted stays for workers; or
3. At least one worker is nearing the 3-year maximum stay limit.

If we request additional evidence because of these situations, it may delay petition processing. Filing separate petitions for workers who are not affected by these scenarios may enable you to quickly obtain some workers, if they are otherwise eligible, in the event that the petition for your other workers is delayed.

If you decide to file more than one petition with the same temporary labor certification, you may only do so if:

1. Each petition is accompanied by the valid temporary labor certification; and

2. The total number of beneficiaries on your petitions does not exceed the total number of workers approved by the U.S. Department of Labor on the temporary labor certification.

Substitutions

An amended H-2A petition, with fee, may be filed to replace H-2A workers whose employment was terminated earlier than the end date stated on the H-2A petition and before the completion of work; who fail to report to work within five days of the employment start date on the H-2A petition or within five days of the start date established by their employer, whichever is later; or who abscond from the worksite. You should provide:

1. A copy of the original petition approval notice;
2. A copy of the previously submitted temporary labor certification;
3. A statement providing each former worker's name, date, and country of birth, termination date, and the reason for termination, and the date that USCIS was notified the worker was terminated or absconded, if applicable;
4. Evidence that the total number of beneficiaries will not exceed the number of workers authorized on the temporary labor certification; and
5. Evidence of the qualifications of the newly identified beneficiaries, if the beneficiary is named.

NOTE: Filing an amended petition for H-2A substitution does not fulfill the requirements set forth in the Notification Requirements section above. Without proper notification, your petition will not be approved. See 8 CFR 214.2(h)(5) (ix).

Change of Status or Extension of Stay

For a petition requesting a change of status or an extension of stay, the petitioner must include with the petition evidence of the beneficiary's maintenance of status, including but not limited to:

1. A copy of the beneficiary's Form I-94, Nonimmigrant Arrival/Departure Record, passport, travel document, or Form I-797;
2. Evidence showing that the beneficiary qualifies for the specific classification sought;
3. A copy of the beneficiary's last two pay stubs, most recent W-2, and Internal Revenue Service (IRS) transcripts of the beneficiary's federal individual income tax return for the three most recent tax years, if applicable; and
4. Evidence the beneficiary continues to meet the licensing requirements for the profession or occupation, if applicable.

The beneficiary's dependent family members (generally, spouses and children under 21) should use Form I-539, Application to Change/Extend Nonimmigrant Status, to apply for a change of status or extension of stay.

A nonimmigrant who must have a passport to be admitted must maintain a valid passport during their entire stay. If a required passport is not valid, include a full explanation.

The following nonimmigrants are not eligible to change status:

1. A noncitizen admitted under a visa waiver program;
2. A noncitizen in transit (C) or in transit without a visa (TWOV);
3. A crewman (D);
4. A K-1 fiancé(e) or their (K-2) dependent;
5. A K-3 spouse of a U.S. citizen or their K-4 dependent;
6. A J-1 exchange visitor who was admitted in J-1 status for the purpose of receiving graduate medical training;
7. A J-1 exchange visitor subject to the foreign residence requirement who has not received a waiver of that requirement; and

8. An M-1 student to an H classification, if training received as an M-1 helped him or her qualify for H classification.

Special Instructions for Certain Beneficiaries in the CNMI

A noncitizen who was admitted to the CNMI prior to November 28, 2009 may not currently hold a Federal nonimmigrant classification that permits a change of status. However, in certain situations, a petitioner may request that the beneficiary be granted initial status in the CNMI. This will allow certain beneficiaries who were present in the CNMI prior to the transition date and are currently lawfully present in the CNMI in parole status to be granted an initial nonimmigrant status without having to depart the CNMI.

NOTE: If the beneficiary was admitted to the United States by CBP at an airport or seaport after April 30, 2013, CBP may have issued them an electronic Form I-94 instead of a paper Form I-94. Item Numbers 1. - 3. If you answered "Yes" to Item Number 1., you must provide the name(s) and address(es) of all persons and entities hired by or working for you, or hired by or working for the recruiter or agent, and any of the agents or employees of those persons and entities, irrespective of whether the petitioner has a direct or indirect contractual or other relationship with any such person or entity, and whether or not such person or entity is located in the United States or outside the United States in Item Numbers 2., 3., and 4. If you need to include the name and address of more than one service or agent, use the space provided in Part 10. What Is the Filing Fee?

The filing fee for Form I-129H2A is $460.

Payments by Checks or Money Orders

Use the following guidelines when you prepare your checks or money orders for the Form I-129H2A filing fee and additional fees:

1. The checks or money orders must be drawn on a bank or other financial institution located in the United States and must be payable in U.S. currency; and
2. Make the checks or money orders payable to U.S. Department of Homeland Security.

NOTE: Spell out U.S. Department of Homeland Security; do not use the initials “USDHS” or “DHS.”

NOTE: The filing fee is not refundable, regardless of any action USCIS takes on this petition. DO NOT MAIL CASH. You must submit all fees in the exact amounts. USCIS will reject or deny your Form I-129H2A if you fail to submit required fees when you submit your petition. You should pay the filing fee and each additional fee with separate checks or money orders.

Notice to Those Paying by Check.

If you send USCIS a check, we will convert it into an electronic funds transfer (EFT). This means we will copy your check and use the account information on it to electronically debit your account for the amount of the check. The debit from your account will usually take 24 hours and your bank will show it on your regular account statement.

You will not receive your original check back. We will destroy your original check, but will keep a copy of it. If USCIS cannot process the EFT for technical reasons, you authorize us to process the copy in place of your original check. If your check is returned as unpayable, we will reject your petition.

How To Check If the Fees Are Correct

Form I-129H2A's filing fee and additional fees are current as of the edition date in the lower left corner of this page. However, because USCIS fees change periodically, you can verify that the fees are correct by following one of the steps below.
